Quote of the Day: "Friendship is the source of the greatest pleasures, and without friends even the most agreeable pursuits become tedious."--- Saint Thomas Aquinas

Today's Meditation: "The Eucharist is alive. If a friend who knew nothing about the Eucharist were to watch the way we receive it, would he know this? When you and I approach the Eucharist, does it look like we are about to take into our bodies the living person, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man? How many times Lord have I forgotten that the Eucharist is alive! As I wait in line to receive You, am I thinking about how much You want to unite Yourself with me? Am I seeing Your hands filled with the graces You want to give me? Am I filled with awe and gratitude that You love me so much as to actually want to come to me in this intimate way? Or am I distracted; busy with other thoughts, preoccupied with myself and my agendas for the day? How many times, Jesus, have I made You sad, mindlessly receiving You into my body, into my heart, with no love and no recognition of Your love? How many times have I treated You as a dead object? The Eucharist that we receive is not a thing! It is not bread and wine. It is a person--He is alive!"--- Vincent Flynn from his book Seven Secrets of the Eucharist, page 8

Bible Verse of the Day: "In the same way, the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weaknesses; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the spirit itself intercedes with inexpressive groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because it intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will."---Romans 8: 26-27
